

Disclaimer for Eurofound webinars

This disclaimer applies to Eurofound webinars and any documents, information or opinions obtained from or ancillary to the webinars. You are advised to read this disclaimer carefully before accessing, participating in, reading or making any other use of a Eurofound Webinar.

Eurofound makes no representations or warranties about the accuracy or suitability of information provided in the webinars and related materials (such as hand-outs, presentation documents and recordings).

The opinions expressed in a webinar are those of the author(s) only, and may not necessarily represent the views of Eurofound or of any other EU Institution or body. To the extent permitted by law, Eurofound and its agents and experts exclude any and all liability for any loss, claim or damage, cost or expense, including any indirect or consequential damages or lost profit, whether arising in negligence or otherwise, suffered in connection with the access to, participation in, or use of the webinar by you or any other person.

By acceding to this service, you acknowledge that the information and materials contained in the webinar may contain inaccuracies or errors. The content of the information provided in the Webinar is for your general information and use only. It is subject to change at any time and without notice.

The Webinar may include links to other resources or websites. These links are provided for your convenience only and do not signify that Eurofound endorses, approves, or makes any representation or claim regarding the accuracy, copyright compliance, legality, or any other aspects of, the resource(s) or website(s).

You are advised not to send any confidential or sensitive information to Eurofound in the context of a webinar.

Note on processing of personal data in the context of the webinar

Any personal data that you will provide to us by participating in our webinar will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data. Please note that this Regulation will be replaced soon by a new one which will reflect the principles embodied in the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) No. 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 (the General Data Protection Regulation/GDPR) and is expected to enter in force by the end of 2018.

The webinars are recorded and the recording is made available online (either on a webinar provider platform, another platform such as YouTube, or directly on the Eurofound website) as long as the recording is considered to be relevant for Eurofound's mission and/or its target audiences. After a maximum period of 10 years, they will be deleted or archived, where they are appraised to have historical value.

By registering and logging on to a webinar, the participant agrees to the following:

- personally identifiable information of participants may be heard, seen, read, collected, or used by Eurofound as the organizer and other webinar participants ;
- any communication or information transmitted during the webinar, such as voice, live instant messaging displaying names of those intervening, presentations, are available to the webinar audience and are also recorded for Eurofound's further promotion and information purposes ;
- Eurofound may further use the information related to the webinar such as invitee lists, attendee logs, information on the webinar subject matter and the recording thereof in reports or in other communication outputs, or for quality evaluation purposes.

The on-line provision and recording of Eurofound webinars is supported by Livestorm. Further information about how they process your data is available: <https://livestorm.co/privacy-policy/> and <https://livestorm.co/gdpr/>.

Eurofound webinar participants shall apply appropriate circumspection when disclosing any personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data since this information may be collected and used by other webinar participants.

You have the right to obtain access to and rectification of your personal data. You may, also, under certain circumstances, ask to have this data blocked or request the erasure of personal data which you consider having been unlawfully processed or object to the processing of your personal data at any time on legitimate compelling grounds relating to your particular situation. Please note that you may exercise your rights at any time subject to the restrictions and exemptions provided for under Article 20 of Regulation (EC) 45/2001 and in particular without prejudice to the rights and freedoms of others.

If you have comments or questions regarding the way we collect and use your personal data or if you wish to exercise your rights as data subject, please feel free to contact us using the following contact information: events@eurofound.europa.eu.

You may address any remarks and/or complaints to Eurofound's Data Protection Officer who can be contacted at DataProtectionOfficer@eurofound.europa.eu. You also have at any time the right to have recourse to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu, <http://www.edps.europa.eu>) regarding the processing of your personal data.
