UNITED KINGDOM

Period: Pre-financial crisis
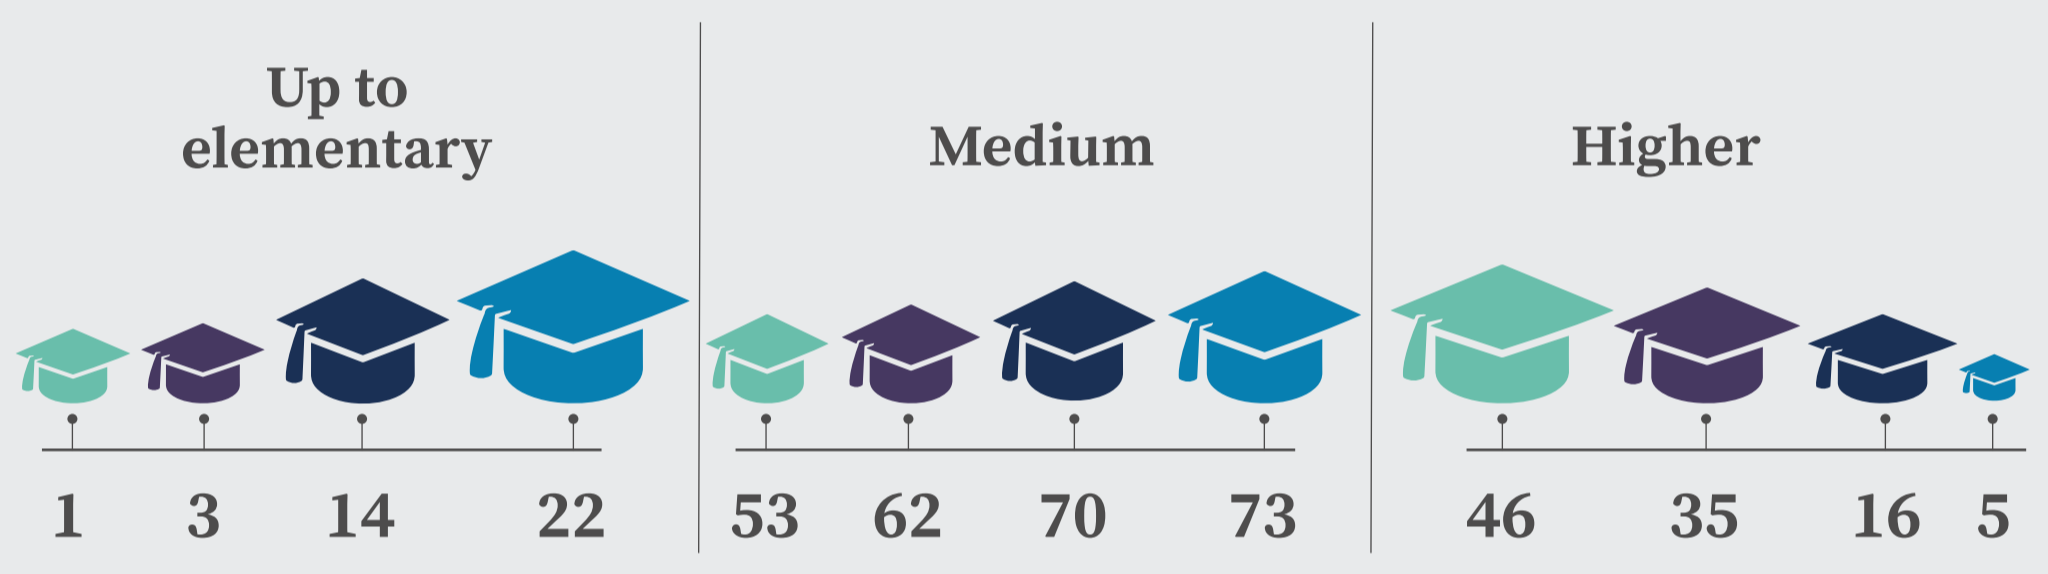

Clusters
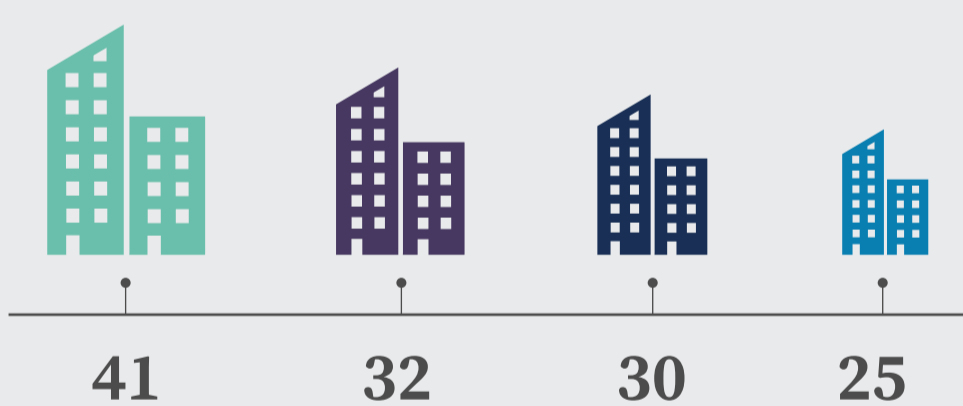

High-level career	Mid-level career	Low-level career	Non-standard career
Careers with open-ended full-time contracts and high earnings	Overall stable careers with medium-high earnings	Careers combining a mix of full and part-time work with medium-to-low earnings	Low-skilled part-time work and low-paid open-ended employment

Gender distribution in each cluster

	High-level	Mid-level	Low-level	Non-standard
Women	37 %	52 %	58 %	60 %
Men	63 %	48 %	42 %	40 %
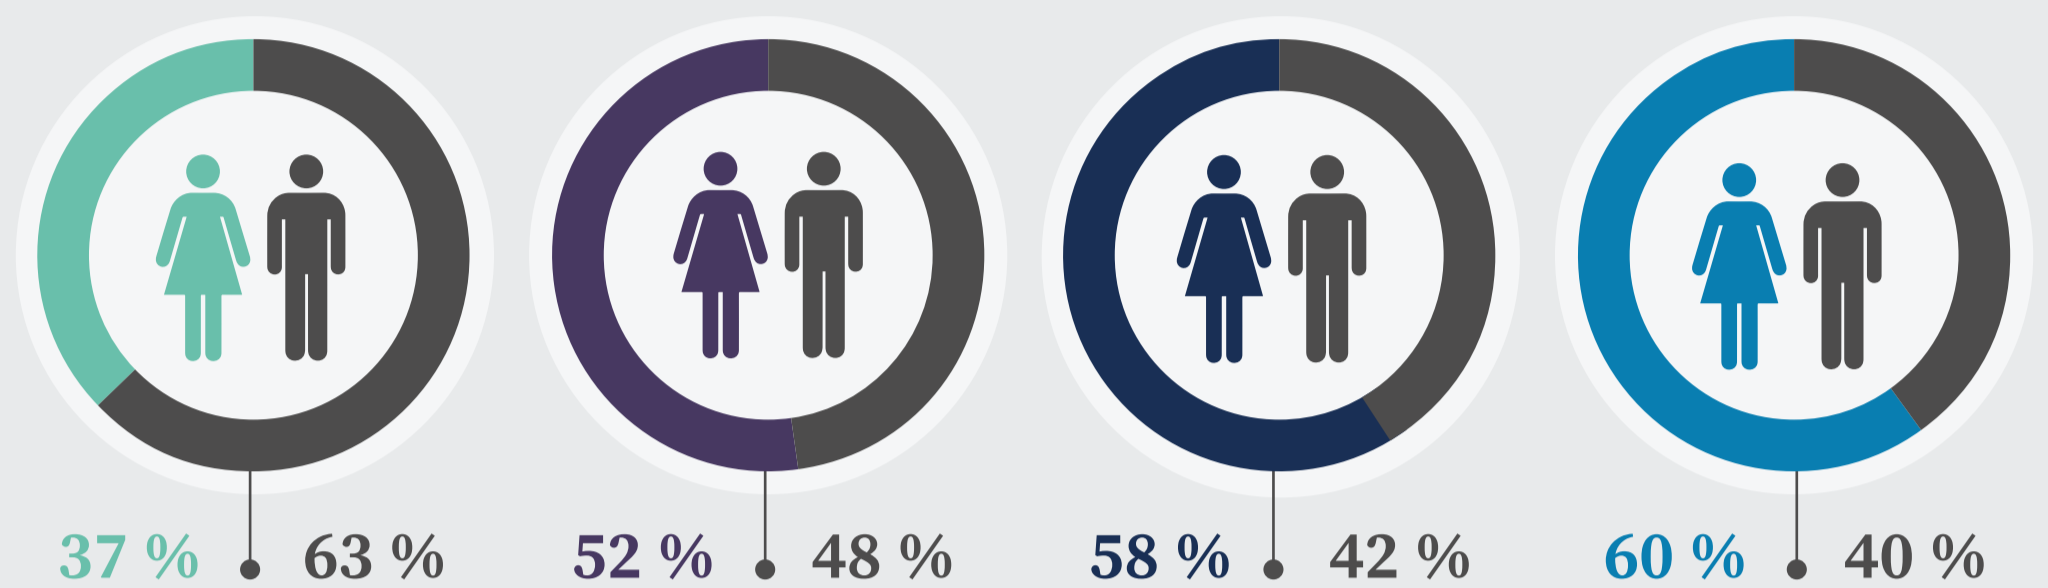

% People with low, medium and high levels of education in each cluster

	Up to elementary	Medium	Higher
High-level	1	53	46
Mid-level	3	62	35
Low-level	14	70	16
Non-standard	22	73	5

% Employed in large companies

High-level	Mid-level	Low-level	Non-standard
41	32	30	25

% Workers aged 56+ in each cluster

Cluster	%
High-level	17 %
Mid-level	12 %
Low-level	13 %
Non-standard	15 %
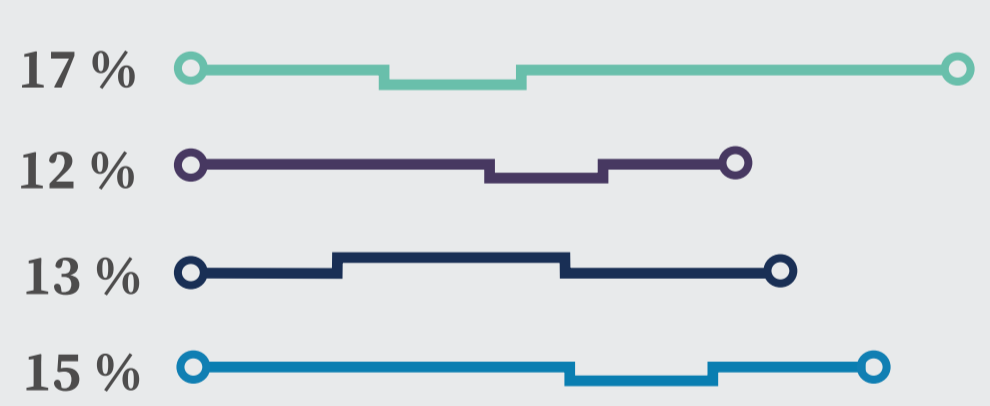

% Employed in high-skilled occupations in each cluster

Cluster	%
High-level	92 %
Mid-level	80 %
Low-level	41 %
Non-standard	11 %
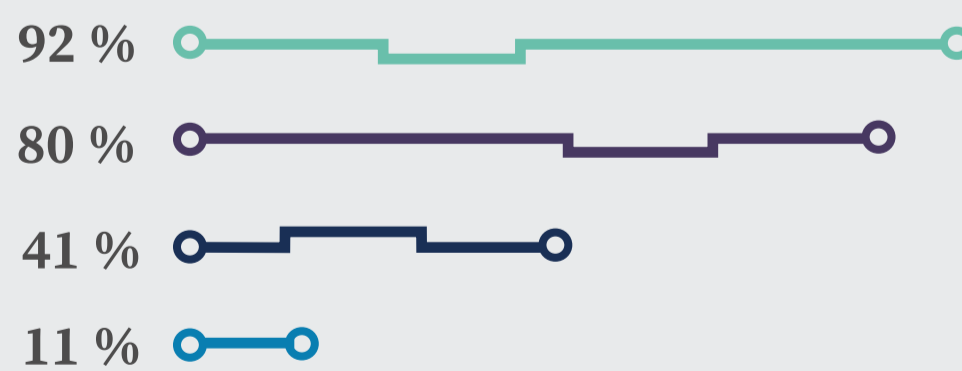

Most prevalent sectors in each cluster

Business services, Public administration	Sales and hotels, Extractive and manufacturing
Health services, Business services	Sales and hotels, Extractive and manufacturing